

PARAGRAPH MATERIAL FOR LATE BLOOMERS
SUPPLEMENTARY – 1 (God Sees the Truth But Waits)

Synopsis:

Introduction
Development
Conclusion

Introduction:

Lesson name: God Sees the Truth, But Waits

Author name: Leo Tolstoy

Theme: Do good even to your enemy

Development:

- Aksionov was a merchant in Vladimir
- He wanted to go to the Nishny fair.
- His wife had a bad dream of his journey.
- On his way, he met a merchant
- The merchant was killed
- The police arrested and sent Aksionov to Siberia
- 26 years passed and he grew old
- He believed in God only
- A new prisoner came to the prison. He was Makar Semyonich from Vladimir
- Aksionov came to know that, Makar was the real killer
- Aksionov saved Makar from authorities, when he dug a tunnel to escape.
- Seeing the good heart of Aksionov, Makar accepted his crime.
- Aksionov forgave him.
- Before the release of Aksionov, he died in peace.

Conclusion:

Forgiveness and forgetfulness is the best form of revenge.